WHY HESITATE?

WHEN you have lived here for years and recognized this to be a most favored spot
WHEN you realize that people from all over the world are making Carmel their mecca:
WHEN people of this class were the main sojourners here last year.
WHY hesitate to build on your property.

Boosts and Knocks

By Observer

I observe that County Purchasing Agent A. G. Winckler is having a considerable amount of the county's printing done in Carmel. I know the work must be O K, else there wouldn't be so many encores.

Three Carmel writers in last week's Saturday Evening Post—Grace Sartwell Mason, Frederick Bechdolt and Harry Leon Wilson. Some boost for the biggest little literary center in the universe, we'll tell the world.

And while speaking of writers, we welcome into our midst Miss Lillian C. Monroe and T. S. Miller, both of whom have stories published in December and January popular magazines.

Hurrah! Three more streets put through Tuesday evening by the Trustees. Pretty soon it will be easy for some of poor folks to have a car; wont have to buy a new one every year on account of the loosening up bolts and bars.

The city fire department had a practice with the new hose-cart the other evening. When you hear that bell it's advisable to get right out of the way, 'cause those boys can run some. One of our trustees tried running in front of the cart and the fire boys nearly made a hamburger sandwich of him. He says he will run behind next time.

Don't fail to register. You may have a chance to vote for William J. Bryan. Wonder what the old boy would do about the grape juice if elected. Someone in the crowd may yell, "Will Bryan let us have grape juice?" Someone will reply, "No, but Leonard Wood."

The Monterey and Pacific Grove papers advise us that a round-up of all the Del Monte Forest elk is being planned, on account of the taste for dahlias developed by the animals. Coincident with the announcement I read in the paper where a woman had secured a divorce because her husband spent too much time at his Elk Lodge. He evidently preferred a lot of elk to Mrs little deer.

One of our visitors gave me some interesting information the other day regarding his trip to China. He said the great wall was wonderful—a thousand miles lone, with a street on top of it fifty feet wide. It is called Wall Street, and was built to keep the robbers out. In this country we have a Wall Street. It's short and it's crooked. It was built to keep the robbers in.

For summer visitors, The Pine Cone three months for 40 cents.

Now Let the Work Go On

The contract for improving Casanova, Dolores and Carmelo streets was awarded on Tuesday evening to S. Ruthven on his bid of $11,867. There was but one bid submitted, and the cost of the work to the property owners will be the same as on the streets already completed.

Work will begin the first week in February. A wise move of the Trustees was the appointment of a citizen-trustee committee to engage an inspector and to take action on the trees.

Near East Situation Now "Most Desperate in World," Says Hoover.

© 1919, Underwood & Underwood.
Herbert Hoover.

Herbert Hoover, who has now become a member of the Executive Committee of Near East Relief, which is caring for nearly 2,000,000 Armenian and Syrian refugees and who, if any one, speaks with authority when he tells of human suffering, says in a formal statement:

"In my opinion, the situation in the Near East is the most desperate in the world."

Mr. Hoover has sent a letter to Cleveland H. Dodge, treasurer of Near East Relief, 1 Madison avenue, New York, in which he says:

"In accepting your invitation to become a member of the Executive Committee of the Near East committee, I do so with reluctance, but out of a sense of duty towards one of the most difficult situations in Europe. Until some political settlement can be obtained for the Near East and some government established in responsibility for the care and repatriation of the Armenian population in the Caucasus, this mass of people must live sheerly by the charity of the United States. There are in the Caucasus approximately 1,800,000 Armenians, of whom 800,000 are entirely destitute—refugees from Turkey—and amongst them a tremendous mass of children.

"I cannot too strongly urge upon the members of the committee and their supporters the critical necessity of concentrating every possible effort to support Colonel Haskell's administration in the amounts that he requires; otherwise we shall witness one of the greatest tragedies of the entire war."
